

BIRTHDAY

Life isn't about what you can hold
in your hands.

It's about what you hold
in your heart.

Bob,

All the happiness
a birthday can bring,
all the love
a heart can hold –
hope your day is full of all of life's best.

Hope you have a magical day & look forward to celebrating
your birthday soon.
Hopefully we can plan
lunch after Joan's surgery.
Love, Betty
