MERRY CHRISTMAS

December 10, 2014

Something on the lighter side...

George worked for the Post Office and his job was to process all the mail that had illegible addresses. One day just before Christmas, a letter landed on his desk simply addressed in shaky handwriting: "To God." With no other clue on the envelope, so, George opened the letter and read:

Dear God, "I am a 93-year-old widow living on a pension. Yesterday someone stole

George could not help musing on Oscar Wilde's quote: "a good deed never goes unpunished."

Not Only Christmas Day

We love Mary Fairchild's poem by this title. Here are the last three stanzas for you.

So while this world rejoices And celebrates Your birth, I treasure You, the greatest gift Unequaled in Your worth.

I long to hear the same words That welcomed home Your Son "Come, good and faithful servant," Your Master says, "Well done." And may heaven welcome others Who will join with me in praise Because I lived for Jesus Christ Not only Christmas Day

Have a great Christmas and New Year!
