

MY MOM, MY FRIEND

She's the one you call first
with your very best news,
because she'll be happy and proud.
She's the voice that you need when you feel like you're followed around by a dark little cloud...

Mom,

On the days nerves are frazzled
and nothing goes right, in the midst of it all, she stays calm.
She's the one who helps hold everything all together.
She's your friend, she's the best...
she's your mom.
